George,

There seems to be a problem with the business meeting we have scheduled tomorrow. All of our boardrooms are booked and we need to find a different location. We have some very important clients coming in from out of town and we need to find a place that is quiet, cheap, and easy to find. Do you have any suggestions?

Maxine Carter

(Directions: Respond to the e-mail as if you are George. Make THREE suggestions for lunch menu options.)

To Anderson Mutual Employees

In recent weeks, many of the news reports throughout the media have been pointing to an economic recession. This news has made many of our investors quite nervous. We expect to see an increase of calls from our concerned investors and we expect many of them would want to sell right away. As financial advisors, we expect you to uphold your professionalism and provide them with the best possible solutions to their financial needs.

Thank you for your cooperation

Matthew Jacobson
CEO of Anderson Mutual

Part 3: Expressing an opinion

A company is planning to construct a big factory near your neighborhood. If the factory is to be constructed, what are the advantages and disadvantages? Do you support or oppose it?
